

Fact Sheet

Exceptional Care Belongs Here

Mackenzie Vaughan Hospital Fundraising

The Mackenzie Health Foundation is spearheading the Exceptional Care Belongs Here campaign, which is committed to raising $250-million in community contributions toward the total $1.6-billion project cost of the new Mackenzie Vaughan Hospital.

This is the largest fundraising drive ever led by a community hospital in Canada.

The campaign is being spearheaded by a dedicated 33-member cabinet, co-chaired by Greg Sorbara and City of Vaughan Mayor Maurizio Bevilacqua.

Over
$80 million
raised in the campaign so far

22 Gifts of $1 million or more

Major contributions have included:

- $15 million from the De Gasperis and Muzzo Families – the largest single donation in the history of Mackenzie Health (previously York Central Hospital)
- $10 million from Vic and Angelina De Zen and Family
- $10 million from Magna International Inc.
- $5 million from the Carlo and Angela Baldassarra Family
- $5 million from the Edward Sorbara, Marcella Tanzola and Gregory Sorbara
- $3 million from Lorenzo and Melina De Meneghi and Families
- $2 million from the RBC Foundation
- $2 million from John D’Angelo, Claudio Memme and Giuseppe Maio
- $2 million the Gucciardi Family
- $2 million from the Ahmadiyya Muslim Jama’at Canada
- $2 million from the Berwick Family of King

Contact:

Mackenzie Health Foundation Communications and Public Affairs

foundation@mackenziehealth.ca
905-883-2032